

THE CLEARY BUSINESS ARTS™ CURRICULUM

SPORTS PROMOTION AND MANAGEMENT

Diverse, exciting and well-paying jobs await you when you choose a career in sports promotion and management from Cleary. Do you want to be close to the action on the field, do you prefer more flexibility in your work, or are you looking for a job that involves the business component of sports promotion and management? This degree offers all three and so much more.

At Cleary, we prepare students to serve as business leaders in the sports industry by offering courses in accounting and finance, business law, international business, risk management, marketing and promotions, sports law, contract negotiations, operational aspects of sports venue management, leadership development and real-world experiences that will prepare you for a leadership position in the competitive world of sports. An internship is part of the curriculum. Students will apply textbook theory to sports management disciplines through hands-on work experience.

Career opportunities available in Sports Promotion and Management

Cleary sports promotion and management graduates have a wide range of jobs of their choosing. These include sports event managers, sports financial advisors, sports marketers, scouts, sports agents, coaches, athletic directors, athletic trainers, fitness center managers, public relations directors, operations manager, and more.
